

CERTIFIED GENERAL REAL PROPERTY APPRAISER

SCOPE OF PRACTICE

The scope of practice for the Certified General Real Property Appraiser shall apply to the appraisal of all types of real property that appraiser is competent to appraise.

STEPS TO CREDENTIALING

1. Obtain required post-secondary education, qualifying education, and experience.
2. Complete application and submit to the Board for review, along with application fee in the appropriate amount as specified on the application.
3. Board will review fully completed application at next regular meeting and select three appraisal reports to send for Standard 3 review, and approve applicant to sit for examination.
4. Pass examination approved by the Appraiser Qualifications Board within twelve months following approval by the Board to sit for examination.
5. If the Standard 3 Review Report for each Board selected appraisal report indicates that the appraisal meets the minimum requirements of USPAP, applicant will be reviewed by the Board for final approval as a Certified General Real Property Appraiser.
6. If any of the Standard 3 Review Reports for any of the Board selected appraisal reports are found to not meet the minimum requirements of USPAP, applicant may be invited to an informal advisory meeting with the Board. The Board may request that applicant take additional steps prior to final review for credentialing. Once all Board requests are met, applicant will be reviewed by the Board for final approval as a Certified General Real Property Appraiser.
7. Submit credentialing fee and federal registry fee as specified on the application.

If you are submitting documentation for the Board to consider at its next meeting, voluntarily or at the Board's request, please have this documentation to the Board's office by 5 p.m. on Friday, two weeks before the scheduled meeting (e.g. for the Thursday, April 18, 2013 meeting, please have documentation to the Board's office by 5 p.m. on Friday, April 5, 2013). The Board typically meets on the third Thursday of each month.
