At its regular meeting on April 24, 2014, the Nebraska Real Property Appraiser Board's ("Board") voted to establish an agency Facebook page to better communicate with credential holders, appraisal management companies, and the public.

For the past year, the Board has considered the operation of a Facebook page to bridge the existing communication gap between information that requires a great deal of detail, and information that could be disseminated easily and quickly. Currently, the Board will issue a Memo From the Board to communicate information relevant to real property appraiser credentialing, appraisal management company registration, and appraisal practice. In addition, the Board's web site is a great source for Board information. Neither of these mediums offer the opportunity for quick information, or for relevant information that is not critical enough to warrant a Memo From the Board, to be released.

The web address to the Facebook page is www.facebook.com/nrpab. You will begin seeing hyperlinks to the Board's Facebook page on Board documents and publications. The Facebook icon on the Board's web site can be found at the top of the main page next to the "AMC Listing" button. The Board is excited about the possibilities the Facebook page brings, so please visit the Facebook page, and feel free to leave a comment. Finally, don't forget to add the NRPAB to your Facebook newsfeed.
