

Memo from the Board to Nebraska Real Property Appraisers

September 2, 2015

Nebraska Real Property Appraiser Board Hires Grant Krieger as Compliance and Education Specialist

By Tyler Kohtz, Director

Grant Krieger has been hired by the Nebraska Real Property Appraiser Board as its new Compliance and Education Specialist to replace Anthony Dreesen, who returned to school to study theology in Wyoming. This position is responsible for conducting the agency’s enforcement and education functions.

Originally from Lincoln, Nebraska, Krieger obtained a Bachelor’s degree from the University of Nebraska in Criminal Justice. His studies have given him an understanding of administrative law and the investigative process. He also has three years of experience in the banking industry. Krieger is also active in the community, and is currently a commissioner for the Junior Saltdogs organization.

Krieger states, “I’m excited about My opportunity to learn more about appraising, and to contribute to the Board’s efforts to grow the profession and protect the public.”

The Board’s Director, Tyler Kohtz, said, “Mr. Krieger’s background and character stood out during the hiring process, and he has already displayed the skillset needed for long term success.”

The Board welcomes Mr. Krieger, and if you would like to offer your congratulations, please email him at grant.krieger@nebraska.gov, or call him at 402-471-9024.
